

Rodrigo Madrazo García de Lomana

Director-General at COFIDES

Rodrigo Madrazo, a Spanish economist with 21 years of professional experience, is the Director-General of COFIDES since August 2018. He is in charge of the daily management of this financial company entrusted with €3.4 bn assets under management.

He entered Spain's Civil Service in 2001 as a State Economist. Between 2015 and 2018 he was Director General for Economic Policy in the Ministry of Economy. Previously, Mr. Madrazo, held different positions in Ministries of Industry and Trade. Between 2007 and 2012, he headed the Economic and Commercial Office of the Spanish Embassy in Ecuador.

Mr. Madrazo also has relevant experience in the corporate sector since he was a Member of the Board of Directors and Audit Committee of Aena (IBEX35 listed company), Instituto de Crédito Oficial (the Spanish state-owned bank) and also ICEX España Exportación e Inversiones, the Spanish agency in charge of promoting external trade and attracting foreign investment. He has been a member of the Board of Directors and the Audit Committee of EDFI Management Company since November 2020.

Rodrigo Madrazo is a graduate in Economics from the Universidad Autónoma de Madrid. On completion of his Ph.D he was awarded the "Extraordinary Prize". He also holds a Master in Public Administration by the Fiscal Studies Institute and EOI Business School. In addition, he has completed executive programs in finance and economics at IE Business School, Euromoney Learning and Harvard University. He is the author of several specialised publications in the fields of economy and finance.